RE: The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc.
Incoming letter dated December 10, 2002

Dear Mr. Bennett:

This is in response to your letter dated December 10, 2002 concerning the shareholder proposal submitted to McGraw-Hill by John Jennings Crapo. Our response is attached to the enclosed photocopy of your correspondence. By doing this, we avoid having to recite or summarize the facts set forth in the correspondence. Copies of all of the correspondence also will be provided to the proponent.

In connection with this matter, your attention is directed to the enclosure, which sets forth a brief discussion of the Division's informal procedures regarding shareholder proposals.

Sincerely,

Martin P. Dunn
Deputy Director

Re: The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc./Omission of Shareholder
Proposal of Mr. John Jennings Crapo

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am Senior Vice President, Associate General Counsel and Secretary of The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc. (the "Company"), and I am filing this letter on behalf of the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") pursuant to Rule 14a-8(j) promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act").

On October 30, 2002, the Company received a shareholder proposal (the "Proposal") and supporting statement, dated October 25, 2002, from Mr. John Jennings Crapo (the "Proponent") which the Proponent seeks to have included in the Company's proxy statement relating to the Company's 2003 annual meeting of shareholders (the "Proxy Materials"). A copy of the correspondence submitting the Proposal is attached hereto as Exhibit A. On November 1, 2002, the Company mailed to the Proponent a notice of deficiency as to the Proposal. In particular, the Company informed the Proponent that he had failed to provide the information required by Rule 14a-8(b)(2) as to the Proponent's eligibility to submit a shareholder proposal. A copy of the Company's notice of deficiency is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

RECEIVED
2002 DEC 12 AM 9:00
OFFICE OF CHIEF COUNSEL
CORPORATION FINANCE

The Proponent's response was received by the Company on November 18, 2002 and was supplemented by the Proponent on November 20, 2002. A copy of the material received by the Company is attached hereto as Exhibit C. The relevant portion of the response consists of selected pages from the monthly brokerage account statements received by the Proponent from Fidelity Investments for the months of September 2001 through October 2002, inclusive. As explained in detail below, this information does not establish the Proponent's continuous ownership of the Company's common stock for the one-year period ending when the Proposal was submitted. As a result, and as set forth below, the Company believes, upon advice of counsel, that the Proposal may be omitted from the Proxy Materials pursuant to Rule 14a-8(f)(1). Moreover, the Company believes that even if the Proponent were to verify his eligibility under Rule 14a-8(b), the Company would be entitled to omit the Proposal from the Proxy Materials on the basis of Rule 14a-8(i)(3), 14a-8(i)(4) and 14a-8(d).

We therefore respectfully request confirmation that the Staff of the Commission will not recommend any enforcement action against the Company if the Company omits the Proposal from the Proxy Materials. Pursuant to Rule 14a-8(j), we are submitting six (6) copies of this letter with its attachments, including the Proposal. A copy of this submission with attachments is being furnished simultaneously to the Proponent.

The Proposal and Supporting Statement

The Proposal is unclear, but appears to request that the Company supply detailed information to its shareholders concerning the Company's charitable contributions and its criteria for selecting the recipients of those contributions. In contrast, the supporting statement has no connection with the Proposal, but instead is a description of various events in the Proponent's personal life. The Proposal and supporting statement taken together are well in excess of 500 words.

Rules 14a-8(b) and (f)(1)

Rule 14a-8(b)(1) provides that, to be eligible to submit a shareholder proposal, a proponent must have continuously held at least $2,000 in market value, or 1%, of the company's securities entitled to be voted on the proposal at the shareholder meeting for at least one year by the date that the proponent submits the proposal. Moreover, the proponent must continue to hold those securities through the date of the shareholder meeting. If the proponent is not a shareholder of record, and if the proponent has not filed stock ownership schedules or forms with the Commission, the proponent must prove his eligibility by submitting (1) a written statement from the record holder of his securities verifying that, at the time that the proponent submitted his proposal, he continuously held the securities for at least one year and (2) a written statement by the proponent that he intends to continue to hold the securities through the date of the shareholder meeting. See Rule 14a-8(b)(2)(i). If the proponent does not submit verification of his eligibility pursuant to Rule 14a-8(b), the company may exclude the proposal, but only after it has notified the proponent of the deficiency and the proponent has failed adequately to correct it. See Rule 14a-8(f)(1). The company must notify the proponent in writing of any deficiency (as well as of the deadline for the proponent's response) within 14 calendar days of receiving the proposal. The proponent's response to the company's notice of deficiency must be postmarked, or transmitted electronically, no later than 14 days from the date the proponent received the company's notice.

Although the Proponent's cover letter states that he satisfies the eligibility requirements of Rule 14a-8(b)(1), the Proponent failed to provide the Company with the documentation required to substantiate this statement. Specifically, the Proponent, who is not a registered shareholder of the Company and who has not previously filed stock ownership schedules or forms with the Commission, did not submit to the Company a letter from the record holder of the Proponent's shares verifying that on October 25, 2002 the Proponent had continuously held the requisite amount of the Company's securities for at least one year. On November 1, 2002, by certified mail, the Company notified the Proponent that he had failed to comply with Rule 14a-8(b)(2). (Exhibit B) In this notice of deficiency, the Company referred the Proponent to Rule 14a-8(b) (a copy of Rule 14a-8 was included with the notice of deficiency) and specifically outlined for the Proponent the eligibility and documentation requirements under that provision and the 14-day deadline for the Proponent's correction of the deficiency, as required by Rule 14a-8(f)(1). On November 8, 2002, the Proponent received the Company's notice of deficiency. A copy of the United States Postal Service return receipt, signed by the Proponent and posted back to the Company on November 8, 2002, is attached hereto as Exhibit D.

The brokerage statements submitted by the Proponent indicate that he owned 40 shares of the Company's common stock on the last day of each month, other than June and September 2002, in the period from September 2001 through October 2002, inclusive. The Staff made perfectly clear in Staff Legal Bulletin No. 14 (July 13, 2001) that monthly brokerage statements are not a valid substitute for an affirmative statement from the record holder that the beneficial owner has held the securities continuously for a one-year period:

Do a shareholder's monthly, quarterly or other periodic investment statements demonstrate sufficiently continuous ownership of the securities?

No. A shareholder must submit an affirmative written statement from the record holder of his or her securities that specifically verifies that the shareholder owned the securities continuously for a period of one year as of the time of submitting the proposal.

Staff Legal Bulletin No. 14, Section C(1)(c)(2). Thus, the Proponent would have failed to demonstrate his eligibility even if he had included proof of ownership as of June 30 and September 30, 2002. The omission of the June and September ownership statements makes the submission doubly faulty.

In accordance with Staff Legal Bulletin No. 14, the Staff has taken a no-action position concerning a company's omission of a shareholder proposal based on a proponent's failure to provide evidence of his eligibility under Rules 14a-8(b) and (f)(1), where the proponent attempted to establish ownership by submitting copies of monthly brokerage statements. See, e.g., Sierra Health Services, Inc. (SEC No-Action Letter available April 3, 2002) and Anthracite Capital, Inc. (SEC No-Action Letter available March 29, 2002). Although the Staff has in some instances extended a proponent's correction period beyond 14 days, the Staff has done so only upon finding deficiencies in the company's communication. See, e.g., Sysco Corporation (SEC No-Action Letter available August 10, 2001); General Motors Corp. (SEC No-Action Letter available April 3, 2001) (extending the correction period because the company's notice did not adequately describe the documentation required under Rule 14a-8(b)). The Company believes that an extension of the response period is not warranted in the present case because the Company's notice of deficiency fully complied with the requirements of Rule 14a-8(f)(1): The Company furnished the Proponent with all relevant information (including the requirements for eligibility, the required documentation and the deadline for response) in the notice of deficiency, and the Company provided the notice in a timely fashion.

Hence, because the Proponent, having received a timely and adequate notice of deficiency from the Company, failed to submit adequate verification of his eligibility as required by Rule 14a-8(b)(2), and because the 14-day period provided by Rule 14a-8(f)(1) for the Proponent to furnish such information to the Company has expired, the Company believes that it may exclude the Proposal under Rule 14a-8(f)(1).

Rule 14a-8(i)(3)

In 2001, the Proponent submitted a shareholder proposal that was virtually identical to the Proposal to Northeast Utilities. The Staff agreed that the proposal could be omitted under 14a-8(i)(3) because it was vague and indefinite. Northeast Utilities (SEC No-Action Letter available April 9, 2001). However, the Staff reached the opposite conclusion with respect to the same proposal when the Proponent submitted it to Sara Lee Corporation that same year. Sara Lee Corporation (SEC No-Action Letter available August 10, 2001). The Staff's response to Sara Lee did not explain why it was reaching a different conclusion, despite the fact that the Northeast Utilities letter was cited in Sara Lee's no-action request to the Staff.

We believe the Staff's decision in Northeast Utilities is correct and that the Proposal can be excluded under Rule 14a-8(i)(3).

Rule 14a-8(i)(4)

Rule 14a-8(i)(4) provides that a company may exclude a shareholder proposal if that proposal seeks redress of a personal claim or grievance of a proponent against the company or any other person, or if the proposal is designed to result in a benefit to the proponent or to further a personal interest of the proponent that is not shared by the other shareholders at large.

This rule is designed to prevent shareholders from abusing the shareholder proposal process in order to “achieve personal ends that are not necessarily in the common interests of the [company’s] shareholders generally.” Release No. 34-20091 (August 16, 1983). The Commission has explicitly noted that the time and expense of addressing such proposals have an adverse effect on a company and its shareholders. See Release No. 34-19135 (October 14, 1982).

The Proponent’s supporting statement, together with the past attempts by the Proponent to have his materials included in the Company’s proxy, demonstrate that the Proponent is using the Proposal as a pretext for requiring the inclusion in the Proxy Materials of his complaints about incidents from his personal life. The Proponent’s two prior attempts were the subject of no-action letters to the Company available February 15, 2002 (agreeing that the Company could exclude a proposal as a personal grievance under 14a-8(i)(4)) and November 26, 2001 (agreeing that the Company could exclude a proposal based on failure of the Proponent to establish eligibility). Although the current Proposal itself purports to address a general shareholder concern (the Company’s charitable contributions), we believe it must be read in conjunction with the supporting statement to ascertain its actual purpose. The publication of this information in the Proxy Materials would serve simply to address the Proponent’s personal grievance, further the Proponent’s personal interest, add extraneous and incomprehensible information to the Proxy Materials, confuse the other shareholders and increase the printing costs of the Company. This result is not in the best interests of either the Company or its shareholders.

We do not believe that it is appropriate in this case to require the Company to include the Proposal without the supporting statement. Where, as here, the facts demonstrate that the Proponent has no bona fide interest in the subject matter of the Proposal, it would be misleading to shareholders to require the Proposal to be included.

It should be noted that the Proponent has a history of seeking to include a personal grievance in other companies' proxy materials as well. See, e.g., Chittenden Corporation (SEC No-Action Letter available January 2, 2001); Fleet Financial Group, Inc. (SEC No-Action Letter available June 25, 1996) (listing other proposals of the Proponent).

Rule 14a-8(d)

Rule 14a-8(d) limits the Proposal and the supporting statement to an aggregate of 500 words. In fact, these materials exceed 1200 words. This in itself provides sufficient grounds for the Company to omit both the Proposal and the supporting statement.

For the reasons set forth above, we respectfully request that the Staff advise us that it will seek no enforcement action against the Company if the Proposal is omitted from the Proxy Materials. The Company plans to mail the Proxy Materials to shareholders on or about March 24, 2003. Please feel free to contact the undersigned at (212) 512-3998 if you have questions or require additional information.

Very truly yours,

Scott L. Bennett

CERTIFIED MAIL
RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED

Mr. John Jennings Crapo
P. O. Box 400151
Cambridge, Massachusetts 02140-0002

Dear Mr. Crapo:

On October 30, 2002, we received the shareholder proposal and supporting materials, dated October 25, 2002, that you sent us relating to the proposal that you request be included in the proxy statement for The McGraw-Hill Companies' next annual meeting. As you may know, Rule 14a-8(b) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, provides that a shareholder wishing to submit a proposal must have continuously held at least $2,000 in market value, or 1%, of the company's securities entitled to be voted on the proposal at the meeting for at least one year prior to the date of submission of the proposal. The stockholder is required to prove that he satisfies this requirement in one of the ways described in paragraph (2) of Rule 14a-8(b). The materials you submitted do not meet this requirement, since you are not listed in our records as a registered shareholder of The McGraw-Hill Companies, and you have failed to submit to us a written statement from the recordholder verifying that at the time you submitted your proposal you continuously held the requisite amount of McGraw-Hill securities for at least one year. For your convenience, a copy of Rule 14a-8 is enclosed.

We are providing you this notice of deficiency pursuant to Rule 14a-8(f)(1). If you wish to cure this deficiency, you must submit proof of your ownership to us within 14 days from the date you receive this letter. If you do not submit proof of your ownership within this period, we will exclude your proposal from the proxy statement for next year's annual meeting. If you do submit proof of your ownership within this period, we will review it to determine if the deficiency has been cured and may still object to your proposal on the basis of other grounds described in Rule 14a-8(i).

Very truly yours,

Scott L. Bennett

[Shareholder Proposals]

Reg. §240.14a-8. This section addresses when a company must include a shareholder's proposal in its proxy statement and identify the proposal in its form of proxy when the company holds an annual or special meeting of shareholders. In summary, in order to have your shareholder proposal included on a company's proxy card, and included along with any supporting statement in its proxy statement, you must be eligible and follow certain procedures. Under a few specific circumstances, the company is permitted to exclude your proposal, but only after submitting its reasons to the Commission. We structured this section in a question-and-answer format so that it is easier to understand. The references to "you" are to a shareholder seeking to submit the proposal.

(a) Question 1: What is a proposal?

A shareholder proposal is your recommendation or requirement that the company and/or its board of directors take action, which you intend to present at a meeting of the company's shareholders. Your proposal should state as clearly as possible the course of action that you believe the company should follow. If your proposal is placed on the company's proxy card, the company must also provide in the form of proxy means for shareholders to specify by boxes a choice between approval or disapproval, or abstention. Unless otherwise indicated, the word "proposal" as used in this section refers both to your proposal, and to your corresponding statement in support of your proposal (if any).

(b) Question 2: Who is eligible to submit a proposal, and how do I demonstrate to the company that I am eligible?

(1) In order to be eligible to submit a proposal, you must have continuously held at least $2,000 in market value, or 1% of the company's securities entitled to be voted on the proposal at the meeting for at least one year by the date you submit the proposal. You must continue to hold those securities through the date of the meeting.

(2) If you are the registered holder of your securities, which means that your name appears in the company's records as a shareholder, the company can verify your eligibility on its own, although you will still have to provide the company with a written statement that you intend to continue to hold the securities through the date of the meeting of shareholders. However, if like many shareholders you are not a registered holder, the company likely does not know that you are a shareholder, or how many shares you own. In this case, at the time you submit your proposal, you must prove your eligibility to the company in one of two ways:

(i) The first way is to submit to the company a written statement from the "record" holder of your securities (usually a broker or bank) verifying that, at the time you submitted your proposal, you continuously held the securities for at least one year. You must also include your own written statement that you intend to continue to hold the securities through the date of the meeting of shareholders; or

(ii) The second way to prove ownership applies only if you have filed a Schedule 13D (§240.13d-101), Schedule 13G (§240.13d-102), Form 3 (§249.103 of this chapter), Form 4 (§249.104 of this chapter) and/or Form 5 (§249.105 of this chapter), or amendments to those documents or updated forms, reflecting your ownership of the shares as of or before the date on which the one-year eligibility period begins. If you have filed one of these documents with the SEC, you may demonstrate your eligibility by submitting to the company:

(A) A copy of the schedule and/or form, and any subsequent amendments reporting a change in your ownership level;

(B) Your written statement that you continuously held the required number of shares for the one-year period as of the date of the statement; and

(C) Your written statement that you intend to continue ownership of the shares through the date of the company's annual or special meeting.

(c) Question 3: How many proposals may I submit?

Each shareholder may submit no more than one proposal to a company for a particular shareholders' meeting.

(d) Question 4: How long can my proposal be?

The proposal, including any accompanying supporting statement, may not exceed 500 words.

(e) Question 5: What is the deadline for submitting a proposal? (1) If you are submitting your proposal for the company's annual meeting, you can in most cases find the deadline in last year's proxy statement. However, if the company did not hold an annual meeting last year, or has changed the date of its meeting for this year more than 30 days from last year's meeting, you can usually find the deadline in one of the company's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q (§249.308a of this chapter) or 10-QSB (§249.308b of this chapter), or in shareholder reports of investment companies under §270.30d-1 of this chapter of the Investment Company Act of 1940. In order to avoid controversy, shareholders should submit their proposals by means, including electronic means, that permit them to prove the date of delivery.

(2) The deadline is calculated in the following manner if the proposal is submitted for a regularly scheduled annual meeting. The proposal must be received at the company's principal executive offices not less than 120 calendar days before the date of the company's proxy statement released to shareholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting. However, if the company did not hold an annual meeting the previous year, or if the date of this year's annual meeting has been changed by more than 30 days from the date of the previous year's meeting, then the deadline is a reasonable time before the company begins to print and mail its proxy materials.

(3) If you are submitting your proposal for a meeting of shareholders other than a regularly scheduled annual meeting, the deadline is a reasonable time before the company begins to print and mail its proxy materials.

(f) Question 6: What if I fail to follow one of the eligibility or procedural requirements explained in answers to Questions 1 through 4 of this section?

(1) The company may exclude your proposal, but only after it has notified you of the problem, and you have failed adequately to correct it. Within 14 calendar days of receiving your proposal, the company must notify you in writing of any procedural or eligibility deficiencies, as well as of the time frame for your response. Your response must be postmarked, or transmitted electronically, no later than 14 days from the date you received the company's notification. A company need not provide you such notice of a deficiency if the deficiency cannot be remedied, such as if you fail to submit a proposal by the company's properly determined deadline. If the company intends to exclude the proposal, it will later have to make a submission under §240.14a-8 and provide you with a copy under Question 10 below, §240.14a-8(j).

(2) If you fail in your promise to hold the required number of securities through the date of the meeting of shareholders, then the company will be permitted to exclude all of your proposals from its proxy materials for any meeting held in the following two calendar years.

(g) Question 7: Who has the burden of persuading the Commission or its staff that my proposal can be excluded?

Except as otherwise noted, the burden is on the company to demonstrate that it is entitled to exclude a proposal.

(h) Question 8: Must I appear personally at the shareholders' meeting to present the proposal?

(1) Either you, or your representative who is qualified under state law to present the proposal on your behalf, must attend the meeting to present the proposal. Whether you attend the meeting yourself or send a qualified representative to the meeting in your place, you should make sure that you, or your representative, follow the proper state law procedures for attending the meeting and/or presenting your proposal.

(2) If the company holds its shareholder meeting in whole or in part via electronic media, and the company permits you or your representative to present your proposal via such media, then you may appear through electronic media rather than traveling to the meeting to appear in person.

(3) If you or your qualified representative fail to appear and present the proposal, without good cause, the company will be permitted to exclude all of your proposals from its proxy materials for any meetings held in the following two calendar years.

(i) Question 9: If I have complied with the procedural requirements, on what other bases may a company rely to exclude my proposal?

(1) Improper under state law: If the proposal is not a proper subject for action by shareholders under the laws of the jurisdiction of the company's organization;

Note to paragraph (i)(1): Depending on the subject matter, some proposals are not considered proper under state law if they would be binding on the company if approved by shareholders. In our experience, most proposals that are cast as recommendations or requests that the board of directors take specified action are proper under state law. Accordingly, we will assume that a proposal drafted as a recommendation or suggestion is proper unless the company demonstrates otherwise.

(2) Violation of law: If the proposal would, if implemented, cause the company to violate any state, federal, or foreign law to which it is subject;

Note to paragraph (i)(2): We will not apply this basis for exclusion to permit exclusion of a proposal on grounds that it would violate foreign law if compliance with the foreign law would result in a violation of any state or federal law.

(3) Violation of proxy rules: If the proposal or supporting statement is contrary to any of the Commission's proxy rules, including §240.14a-9, which prohibits materially false or misleading statements in proxy soliciting materials;

(4) Personal grievance; special interest: If the proposal relates to the redress of a personal claim or grievance against the company or any other person, or if it is designed to result in a benefit to you, or to further a personal interest, which is not shared by the other shareholders at large;

(5) Relevance: If the proposal relates to operations which account for less than 5 percent of the company's total assets at the end of its most recent fiscal year, and for less than 5 percent of its net earnings and gross sales for its most recent fiscal year, and is not otherwise significantly related to the company's business;

(6) Absence of power/authority: If the company would lack the power or authority to implement the proposal;

(7) Management functions: If the proposal deals with a matter relating to the company's ordinary business operations;

(8) Relates to election: If the proposal relates to an election for membership on the company's board of directors or analogous governing body;

(9) Conflicts with company's proposal: If the proposal directly conflicts with one of the company's own proposals to be submitted to shareholders at the same meeting;

Note to paragraph (i)(9): A company's submission to the Commission under this section should specify the points of conflict with the company's proposal.

(10) Substantially implemented: If the company has already substantially implemented the proposal;

(11) Duplication: If the proposal substantially duplicates another proposal previously submitted to the company by another proponent that will be included in the company's proxy materials for the same meeting;

(12) Resubmissions: If the proposal deals with substantially the same subject matter as another proposal or proposals that has or have been previously included in the company's proxy materials within the preceding 5 calendar years, a company may exclude it from its proxy materials for any meeting held within 3 calendar years of the last time it was included if the proposal received:

(i) Less than 3% of the vote if proposed once within the preceding 5 calendar years;

(ii) Less than 6% of the vote on its last submission to shareholders if proposed twice previously within the preceding 5 calendar years; or

(iii) Less than 10% of the vote on its last submission to shareholders if proposed three times or more previously within the preceding 5 calendar years; and

(13) Specific amount of dividends: If the proposal relates to specific amounts of cash or stock dividends.

(j) Question 10: What procedures must the company follow if it intends to exclude my proposal?

(1) If the company intends to exclude a proposal from its proxy materials, it must file its reasons with the Commission no later than 80 calendar days before it files its definitive proxy statement and form of proxy with the Commission. The company must simultaneously provide you with a copy of its submission. The Commission staff may permit the company to make its submission later than 80 days before the company files its definitive proxy statement and form of proxy, if the company demonstrates good cause for missing the deadline.

(2) The company must file six paper copies of the following:

(i) The proposal;

(ii) An explanation of why the company believes that it may exclude the proposal, which should, if possible, refer to the most recent applicable authority, such as prior Division letters issued under the rule; and

(iii) A supporting opinion of counsel when such reasons are based on matters of state or foreign law.

(k) Question 11: May I submit my own statement to the Commission responding to the company's arguments?

Yes, you may submit a response, but it is not required. You should try to submit any response to us, with a copy to the company, as soon as possible after the company makes its submission. This way, the Commission staff will have time to consider fully your submission before it issues its response. You should submit six paper copies of your response.

(l) Question 12: If the company includes my shareholder proposal in its proxy materials, what information about me must it include along with the proposal itself?

(1) The company's proxy statement must include your name and address, as well as the number of the company's voting securities that you hold. However, instead of providing that information, the company may instead include a statement that it will provide the information to shareholders promptly upon receiving an oral or written request.

(2) The company is not responsible for the contents of your proposal or supporting statement.

(m) Question 13: What can I do if the company includes in its proxy statement reasons why it believes shareholders should not vote in favor of my proposal, and I disagree with some of its statements?

(1) The company may elect to include in its proxy statement reasons why it believes shareholders should vote against your proposal. The company is allowed to make arguments reflecting its own point of view, just as you may express your own point of view in your proposal's supporting statement.

(2) However, if you believe that the company's opposition to your proposal contains materially false or misleading statements that may violate our anti-fraud rule, §240.14a-9, you should promptly send to the Commission staff and the company a letter explaining the reasons for your view, along with a copy of the company's statements opposing your proposal. To the extent possible, your letter should include specific factual information demonstrating the inaccuracy of the company's claims. Time permitting, you may wish to try to work out your differences with the company by yourself before contacting the Commission staff.

(3) We require the company to send you a copy of its statements opposing your proposal before it mails its proxy materials, so that you may bring to our attention any materially false or misleading statements, under the following timeframes:

(i) If our no-action response requires that you make revisions to your proposal or supporting statement as a condition to requiring the company to include it in its proxy materials, then the company must provide you with a copy of its opposition statements no later than 5 calendar days after the company receives a copy of your revised proposal; or

(ii) In all other cases, the company must provide you with a copy of its opposition statements no later than 30 calendar days before its files definitive copies of its proxy statement and form of proxy under §240.14a-6.

SIX(106) A OF one Hundred - Two (102)

For the past year we have been telling people where our wedding reception would be held. As we answered, "the Milton Hoosic Club", eyebrows would raise and the inevitable question would be asked...

"the where? The Hoosic-whats-its Club???" So, for any of you who are wondering "what the heck is a Hoosic?!?!?", please keep reading.

What's A Hoosic?

Centuries before European settlement, the Massachusetts Indians, or "People of the Great Hills" lived and thrived in the nearby Blue Hills and Houghton's Pond area. They settled around a splendid pond and named it "Hoosickwhisick" or, in their language, "beautiful still water". Around the pond, at the base of the Great Blue Hill, the Massachusetts hunted caribou, bear, deer, small mammals, gathered wild berries and nuts, and planted corn and squash.

Fast forward to 1891 and in that year, a family-oriented social club in Milton was established. They built a grand clubhouse with sport facilities for the members' enjoyment. At the same time, another social club was established in the neighboring town of Canton. This club in Canton took the Massachusetts name for the nearby Houghton Pond and was established as the "Hoosic-Whisick" club.

The club in Canton built a state-of-the-art golf facility. The two clubs maintained separate facilities and memberships for many years, although each had discernable lacks: the club in Canton did not have a decent clubhouse, and the Milton club did not have a golf course. In 1946, having thought about it for half a century, the clubs merged and formed the Milton-Hoosic Club. In 1991 the Milton-Hoosic Club celebrated its centennial year.

So, there you have it... a Hoosic is beautiful still water. So the next time you're driving by the Charles River, Lake Ontario or Lake Michigan, you can impress your friends and comment on the "beautiful hoosic".

We look forward to seeing you at 6:00PM over at the Milton Hoosic Club!!!

Escrow Message:

We are required by law to withhold and pay to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) 30% of interest, dividends and certain other payments if you do not provide us with a properly completed IRS Form W-9. Payer's Request for Taxpayer Identification Number. If you are a nonresident alien, you must instead provide us with Form W-8: Certificate of Foreign Status, in order to prevent your account from being treated as that of a U.S. citizen.

We withheld 30% from your reportable payment(s) and placed the withheld amount(s) in escrow within your account. If we receive a properly completed IRS Form W-9 (or W-8) within 30 days, all amounts held in escrow will be paid to the IRS. Thereafter, unless we receive a properly completed Form W-9 (or W-8), we are required to withhold interest, dividends, and certain other payments credited to your account and pay such amounts to the IRS immediately.

*Note: Form W-9 (or W-8) must be received within 30 days from the opening date of your account.

Escrow Notice

We are required by law to withhold and pay to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) 30% of interest, dividends and certain other payments if you do not provide us with a properly completed IRS Form W-9; Payer's Request for Taxpayer Identification Number. If you are a nonresident alien, you must instead provide us with Form W-8; Certificate of Foreign Status, in order to prevent your account from being treated as that of a U.S. citizen.

We withheld 30% from your reportable payment(s) and placed the withheld amount(s) in escrow within your account. This information was reflected on your previous monthly statement. Since our records indicate that we did not receive from you a properly completed IRS Form W-9 (or W-8) within 30 days*, all amounts held in escrow were paid to the IRS. This information is reflected in the activity portion of your statement.

*Note: Form W-9 (or W-8) must be received within 30 days from the opening date of your account.

Escrow Message

We are required by law to withhold and pay to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) 30% of interest, dividends and certain other payments if you do not provide us with a properly completed IRS Form W-9. Payer's Request for Taxpayer Identification Number, if you are a nonresident alien, you must instead provide us with Form W-8. Certificate of Foreign Status, in order to prevent your account from being treated as that of a U.S. citizen.

We withheld 30% from your reportable payment(s) and placed the withheld amount(s) in escrow within your account. Since our records indicate that we did not receive from you a properly completed IRS Form W-9 (or W-8) within 30 days*, all amounts held in escrow were paid to the IRS. This information is reflected in the activity portion of your statement.

*Note: Form W-9 (or W-8) must be received within 30 days from the opening date of your account.

DIVISION OF CORPORATION FINANCE INFORMAL PROCEDURES REGARDING SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS

The Division of Corporation Finance believes that its responsibility with respect to matters arising under Rule 14a-8 [17 CFR 240.14a-8], as with other matters under the proxy rules, is to aid those who must comply with the rule by offering informal advice and suggestions and to determine, initially, whether or not it may be appropriate in a particular matter to recommend enforcement action to the Commission. In connection with a shareholder proposal under Rule 14a-8, the Division's staff considers the information furnished to it by the Company in support of its intention to exclude the proposals from the Company's proxy materials, as well as any information furnished by the proponent or the proponent's representative.

Although Rule 14a-8(k) does not require any communications from shareholders to the Commission's staff, the staff will always consider information concerning alleged violations of the statutes administered by the Commission, including argument as to whether or not activities proposed to be taken would be violative of the statute or rule involved. The receipt by the staff of such information, however, should not be construed as changing the staff's informal procedures and proxy review into a formal or adversary procedure.

It is important to note that the staff's and Commission's no-action responses to Rule 14a-8(j) submissions reflect only informal views. The determinations reached in these no-action letters do not and cannot adjudicate the merits of a company's position with respect to the proposal. Only a court such as a U.S. District Court can decide whether a company is obligated to include shareholder proposals in its proxy materials. Accordingly a discretionary determination not to recommend or take Commission enforcement action, does not preclude a proponent, or any shareholder of a company, from pursuing any rights he or she may have against the company in court, should the management omit the proposal from the company's proxy material.

Re: The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc.
Incoming letter dated December 10, 2002

The proposal relates to charitable contributions.

There appears to be some basis for your view that McGraw-Hill may exclude the proposal under rule 14a-8(f). We note that the proponent failed to supply, within 14 days of receipt of McGraw-Hill's request, documentary support evidencing that he satisfied the minimum ownership requirement for the one-year period as of the date that he submitted the proposal as required by rule 14a-8(b). Accordingly, we will not recommend enforcement action to the Commission if McGraw-Hill omits the proposal from its proxy materials in reliance on rules 14a-8(b) and 14a-8(f). In reaching this position, we have not found it necessary to address the alternative bases for omission upon which McGraw-Hill relies.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Bowes
